

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910787816303321
Autore	Mouser Bruce L.
Titolo	A black gambler's world of liquor, vice, and presidential politics : William Thomas Scott of Illinois, 1839-1917 // Bruce L. Mouser ; foreword by Henry Louis Gates, Jr
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Madison, Wisconsin : , : The University of Wisconsin Press, , 2014 ©2014
ISBN	0-299-30183-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (200 p.)
Disciplina	977.3/04092
Soggetti	African American presidential candidates Gamblers - Illinois African Americans - Political activity - History - 19th century Illinois Politics and government 1865-1950 United States Politics and government 1901-1909
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Foreword / Henry Louis Gates, Jr.; Preface; Acknowledgments; List of Abbreviations; Introduction: Scott's Foundational Years; Chapter 1. A Gambler's World of Liquor, Vice, and Hometown Politics in the Post-Civil War Era; Chapter 2. Covering His Past with Rebellion and Journalism, the Early 1880's; Chapter 3. Reinvention as a Respectable Democrat, 1884 to 1893; Chapter 4. Scott's Frenetic Decade, 1893 to 1904; Chapter 5. The National Negro Liberty Party and the Debacle of the 1904 Election; Chapter 6. Hard Landing and Slow Recovery in Springfield Conclusion: More Complicated Than That Notes; Bibliography; Index