

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910787875603321
Autore	Smith Melissa M. <1963->
Titolo	Dark money, super PACs, and the 2012 election // Melissa M. Smith and Larry Powell
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Maryland : , : Lexington Books, , 2013 ©2013
ISBN	1-4985-3215-2 0-7391-8542-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (127 p.)
Collana	Lexington Studies in Political Communication
Disciplina	324.7/80973090512
Soggetti	Campaign funds - United States Political action committees - United States Presidents - United States - Election - 2012 United States Politics and government 2009-
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; Chapter One: Introduction: The Genesis of Super PACs in the 2010 Midterm Elections; Chapter Two: Major Super PACs and Supporters: An Overview; Chapter Three: The Republican Primaries: Mitt Romney and Restore Our Future; Chapter Four: Democratic Super PACs Active in the 2012 Republican Primary; Chapter Five: Major Democratic Super PACs in General Election; Chapter Six: President Barack Obama and Priorities USA Action; Chapter Seven: Not-For-Profit Super PACs; Chapter Eight: Major Republican Super PACs Chapter Nine: Romney and Restore Our Future 2: The General ElectionChapter Ten: Karl Rove and American Crossroads; Chapter Eleven: Lone Mavericks; Chapter Twelve: Looking Back, Looking Forward: Conclusions and Discussion; About the Authors; Index
Sommario/riassunto	This book helps identify and explain how the new federal campaign finance rules changed the way campaigns were run and paid for in 2012, along with shifting the balance of power from political parties to third-party interest groups.