

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910788263503321
Titolo	Contemporary Sephardic identity in the Americas [[electronic resource]] : an interdisciplinary approach // edited by Margalit Bejarano and Edna Aizenberg
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Syracuse, N.Y., : Syracuse University Press, 2012
ISBN	0-8156-5165-1
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (278 p.)
Collana	Modern Jewish history
Altri autori (Persone)	BejaranoMargalit AizenbergEdna
Disciplina	305.800973
Soggetti	Sephardim - America Jews - America America Ethnic relations
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	The Sephardic communities of Latin America: a puzzle of subethnic fragments, / Margalit Bejarano -- Nuevos mundos hallo colon, or, what's different about Sephardic literature in the Americas? / Edna Aizenberg -- Sephardic and Syrian immigration to America: acculturation and communal preservation / Jane Gerber -- Cultural Zionism as a contact zone: Sephardic and Askenazi Jews bridge the gap on the pages of the Argentine newspaper Israel / Raanan Rein and Mollie Lewis Nouwen -- Syrian Jews in Buenos Aires: between religious revival and return to biblical sources, 1953-90 / Susana Brauner -- Religious movements in Mexican Sephardism / Liz Hamui Halabe -- Transnational identity and Miami Sephardim / Henry A. Green -- From Turkey to the United States: the trajectory of Cuban Sephardim in Miami / Margalit Bejarano -- Ladino in Latin America: an old language in the new world / Monique R. Balbuena -- A taste of sepharad from the Mexican suburbs: Rosa Nissan's stylized Ladino in Novia que te vea and Hisho que te nazca / Yael Halevi-Wise -- The role of music in the Quebec Sephardic community / Judith R. Cohen.

