

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910788379103321
Autore	Marietta Morgan
Titolo	The politics of sacred rhetoric [[electronic resource]] : absolutist appeals and political persuasion / / Morgan Marietta
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Waco, Tex., : Baylor University Press, c2012
ISBN	1-280-48757-7 9786613582805 1-60258-388-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (277 p.)
Collana	Studies in rhetoric and religion ; ; 12
Disciplina	322/.10973
Soggetti	Religion and politics - United States Ethical absolutism - Political aspects - United States Rhetoric - Political aspects - United States Rhetoric - Religious aspects
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Sacred rhetoric in American politics -- Values and value conflict, sacred values, and sacred rhetoric -- The reasoning effect: sacred rhetoric and deliberation -- The activation effect: sacred rhetoric and participation -- "From my cold, dead hands": sacred rhetoric and social movements -- The absolutist advantage: sacred rhetoric in the Bush era -- Sacred rhetoric from Carter to Clinton: the 1976-1996 presidential debates -- Sacred rhetoric, the 2008 campaigns, and the Democratic Party -- Conclusion: "a cure for thought and the diseases it breeds".
Sommario/riassunto	Revealing what lies behind much contemporary political rhetoric, Morgan Marietta shows that the language of America's most prominent leaders often relies on deep, even sacred, ideals. Comprehensively and in great detail surveying the rhetorical inventions employed in influential social movements and into the highest levels of government, The Politics of Sacred Rhetoric systematically analyzes the use of absolutist claims-and appeals to what a speaker deems to be universal truths-as essential elements of persuasion in the American political landscape. In exploring the sometimes subt

