| Sommario/riassunto      | This book explores the ways in which study of culture as the realm ofmeaning and identity can inform current debates about globalizationand thus afford greater understanding of emergent globalities. Bydrawing on a range of disciplinary and sub-disciplinary expertise fromacross the social sciences and also promoting areas of cross-disciplinary research, the book contributes to the development oftheory on globalization and also provides some significant illustrationsof (cultural) globaliz... |
