| Sommario/riassunto      | This book explores the relationship between the new context that Johnprovides for his allusions and their context in the Old Testament. Forexample, did John choose texts to meet the needs of the recipients ordid his meditation on the scriptures give him a unique insight into theirsituation? Ramsay held that local knowledge led to John's choice oftexts whereas Beale believed that Revelation is a midrash on Daniel.Both are one-sided, as a study of John's use of Ezekiel shows. Johnbased a number of his incidents on Ezekiel, in much the same order.Nevertheless, there are also major discont |
