

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910789825203321   |
| Autore                  | Schneider Helen M   |
| Titolo                  | Keeping the nation's house [[electronic resource] ] : domestic management and the making of modern China / / Helen M. Schneider   |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Vancouver, : UBC Press, 2011  |
| ISBN                    | 1-283-05438-897866130543880-7748-1999-5   |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (337 p.)  |
| Collana                 | Contemporary Chinese studies series, , 1206-9523/1925-0177  |
| Disciplina              | 640/.9510904  |
| Soggetti                | Home economics - China - History - 20th centuryHome economics - Study and teaching - China - History - 20th centuryWomen - Education - China - History - 20th centuryFamilies - Political aspects - China - History - 20th centuryWomen - China - Social conditions - 20th centurySex role - China - History - 20th centuryChina Social conditions 1912-1949China Social conditions 1949-1976   |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese   |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia  |
| Note generali           | "Published with the assistance of the Virginia Tech Department of History"--T.p. verso.   |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references and index.  |
| Nota di contenuto       | The ideology of the Happy Family, 1915-48 -- Gendered responsibilities : debates over female education in the Republican Period -- Domestic discipline : the development of home economics curricula -- A discipline of their own : home economists in institutions of higher learning -- Experimenting with the family : family education experimental zones in the 1940's -- Cleaning house : the last decade of a gendered discipline -- The post-1949 politics of home economics : stories of professional evolution -- Conclusion. |