

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910789838903321   |
| Autore                  | Williamson Jeffrey G. <1935->   |
| Titolo                  | Trade and poverty : when the Third World fell behind // Jeffrey G. Williamson   |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Cambridge, Mass., : MIT Press, ©2011  |
| ISBN                    | 1-282-97850-097866129785000-262-29572-5   |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (314 pages) : illustrations   |
| Disciplina              | 338.9009172/4   |
| Soggetti                | Industries - Developing countries - HistoryDeindustrialization - Developing countries - HistoryPoverty - Developing countries - HistoryDeveloping countries Commerce HistoryDeveloping countries Economic conditions Regional disparities   |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese   |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia  |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references and index.  |
| Nota di contenuto       | When the Third World fell behind -- The first global century up to 1913 -- Biggest Third World terms of trade boom ever? -- The economics of Third World growth engines and dutch diseases -- Measuring third world de-industrialization and Dutch disease -- An Asian de-industrialization illustration : an Indian paradox? -- A Middle East de-industrialization illustration : Ottoman problems -- A Latin American de-industrialization illustration : Mexican exceptionalism -- Rising Third World inequality during the trade boom : did it matter? -- Export price volatility: another drag on Third World growth? -- Tying the knot : the globalization and great divergence connection -- Better late than never : industrialization spreads to the poor periphery -- Policy response : what did they do? What should they have done? -- Morals of the story. |
| Sommario/riassunto      | This work explores how the rise of globalization over the past two centuries helps explain the income gap between rich and poor countries today.  |

