

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910789902503321
Autore	Kroeker Greta Grace
Titolo	Erasmus in the footsteps of Paul : a Pauline theologian // Greta Grace Kroeker
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Toronto, [Ontario] ; ; Buffalo, [New York] ; ; London, [Engalnd] : , : University of Toronto Press, , 2011 ©2011
ISBN	1-4426-6269-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (216 p.)
Collana	Erasmus studies
Disciplina	227/.107
Soggetti	Free will and determinism - Religious aspects - Christianity - History of doctrines - 16th century Justification (Christian theology) - History of doctrines - 16th century History Criticism, interpretation, etc. Electronic books.
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Justification, grace, and the will -- Erasmus on Romans : texts and authorities -- Reconsideration -- Reassessment -- Controversy -- Conclusion.
Sommario/riassunto	Erasmus allowed his religious beliefs to evolve in response to the Reformation's theological debates: in 1524 he gave in to pressure to write against Martin Luther and his position on free will; by 1527 he had begun to develop a theology of grace remarkably similar to that of leading Protestants. A chief source of evidence for Erasmus' theological views can be found in his changing understandings of Saint Paul's Epistle to the Romans and other teachings during this period. Erasmus in the Footsteps of Paul is the first book to investigate Erasmus' negotiations of Romans in the Reformation world. Greta Grace Kroeker examines Erasmus' Annotations, Paraphrases, and the texts of his polemic with Luther - De libero arbitrio and Hyperaspistes 1 and 2 - to show that although Erasmus never left the Catholic Church, his struggles with the Reformation's central issues were instrumental to his growth as a theologian.

---