

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910790051203321
Autore	Lemov Michael R. <1935->
Titolo	People's warrior [[electronic resource]] : John Moss and the fight for freedom of information and consumer rights // Michael R. Lemov
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Md., : Fairleigh Dickinson University Press, 2011
ISBN	1-283-09897-0 9786613098979 1-61147-025-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (422 p.)
Disciplina	328.73092 B
Soggetti	Legislators - United States Government information - United States - History Freedom of information - United States - History Consumer protection - Government policy - United States - History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Prologue: the consumer decade -- Troubled roots : a little town in the valley -- Dangerous ground : the California Assembly -- I went to bed a loser : the road to Congress -- The people's right to know : a distant shore -- The Freedom of Information Act : perilous journey -- The Product Safety Act : consumer as guinea pig -- Reviving the Federal Trade Commission : the Magnuson-Moss Act -- Investor protection : breaking Wall Street's monopoly -- Cars, chemicals, and Arab oil : changing times -- Consumer protection in retreat: two crushing defeats -- Freedom of information today : the torture memos -- Epilogue : the legacy.
Sommario/riassunto	It is hard to believe today, that there was a time when there was no lawful right to obtain government information, children's toys and other consumer products were not subject to safety standards, motor vehicles were not designed to protect their occupants, and when there was no federal insurance to protect investor money in brokerage accounts. These and other consumer rights came only after fierce battles in the decade from 1966 to 1976. This book focuses on the enactment of these rights and on the unreported and unprecedented life and times of John Moss, one of the towering leaders of the d
