

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910790547103321
Autore	Egerton Douglas R.
Titolo	Rebels, reformers, & revolutionaries : collected essays and second thoughts // Douglas R. Egerton
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York : , : Routledge, , 2002
ISBN	1-136-70160-5 0-415-86676-6 1-315-02341-5 1-136-70153-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (269 p.)
Collana	Crosscurrents in African American history
Disciplina	973/.03
Soggetti	Slavery - Political aspects - Southern States - History Enslaved persons - Political activity - Southern States - History Slave rebellions - Southern States - History African American social reformers - Southern States - History Social reformers - Southern States - History Revolutionaries - Southern States - History Southern States Politics and government 1775-1865 Southern States Race relations Political aspects Southern States Social conditions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Black independence struggles and the tale of two revolutions -- An upright man -- Gabriel's Conspiracy and the election of 1800 -- Fly across the river : the Easter Slave Conspiracy of 1802 -- Denmark Vesey and revolutionary theology -- Charles Fenton Mercer and public education in Virginia -- A new look at the American Colonization Society -- An update on Jacksonian historiography : the biographies -- Markets Without a market revolution : southern planters and capitalism -- The proslavery critique of the American Colonization Society -- The Tricolor in black and white : the French Revolution in Jefferson's Virginia -- A matter of blood : Thomas Jefferson and the Hemings Family.

Sommario/riassunto

This collection of essays examines the lives and thoughts of three interrelated Southern groups - enslaved rebels, conservative white reformers, and white revolutionaries - presenting a clear and cogent understanding of race, reform, and conservatism in early American history.

---