

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910791443403321
Autore	Langmia Kehbuma
Titolo	An evil meal of evil [[electronic resource] /] / Kehbuma Langmia
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Mankon, Bamenda, Cameroon, : Langaa Research & Pub. CIG, 2009
ISBN	1-283-19806-1 9956-715-88-3 9786613198068 9956-715-05-0 9956-615-10-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (62 p.)
Disciplina	822.914
Soggetti	Avarice Witchcraft - Africa Vampires - Africa
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Dedication -- Foreword -- Act I -- Scene 1. Njukebim, Sunyin's father is in his "Talih" -- Scene 2. Sunyin has been married for over a year now -- Scene 3. The members of "Nda Saah" -- Scene 4. Dohbani and Sunyin are on stage -- Scene 5. Dohbani is brought in, dead -- Act II -- Scene 1. Following the death of Dohbani -- Scene 2. Sunyin lies in her homestead, legs out-stretched -- Scene 3. Njukebim and Nadoh are at home.
Sommario/riassunto	An Evil Meal of Evil is a play about greed and its consequences. Set in the traditional African village of 'Ntisong', the play exposes the complexities of unravelling the issue of Death. Sunyin, the young wife of Dohbani epitomizes what is wrong with coerced marriages. A group of blood thirsty vampires popularly known in the village as members of 'Nda Saah' superstitiously kill targeted individuals purposely to enrich themselves. Sunyin, the protagonist in the play suffers from a premature widowhood simply because her father Njukebim forced her into marrying Dohbani. As the play unravels with