

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910791555403321
Autore	Carlsmith Christopher
Titolo	A Renaissance education : schooling in Bergamo and the Venetian Republic, 1500-1650 / / Christopher Carlsmith
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Toronto, [Ontario] ; ; Buffalo, [New York] ; ; London, [England] : , : University of Toronto Press, , 2010 ©2010
ISBN	1-4426-9742-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (454 p.)
Disciplina	373.45/2409031
Soggetti	Education, Secondary - Italy - Bergamo - History - 16th century Education, Secondary - Italy - Bergamo - History - 17th century Education - Italy - Bergamo - History Education - Italy - History - 16th century Education - Italy - History - 17th century Renaissance - Italy - Bergamo Bergamo (Italy) History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Commune : schooling and the city -- Misericordia : schooling and confraternities -- Catechismo : schooling and the Catholic Church -- Chiesa : schooling with Jesuits and Somaschans -- Genitori : schooling, parents, and tutors -- Fuori le mura : schooling beyond Bergamo -- Conclusion -- Appendix 1. Teachers in late medieval and early modern Bergamo, by institution -- Appendix 2. Distribution of teachers and students in Bergamo's schools of Christian doctrine, 1609.
Sommario/riassunto	"The skills, ideas, and behaviours imparted through schooling provide insight into the collective outlook of a society in any age. Deeply rooted in archival sources, Christopher Carlsmith's A Renaissance Education uses a case study approach to examine educational practices in the north-eastern Italian city of Bergamo from 1500 to 1650. Carlsmith illustrates how education in this and other Venetian cities was affected by Renaissance humanism, Tridentine Catholicism, and Venetian domination, and how cooperation among various institutions resulted in a surprising array of options for schooling in these provincial cities." "A Renaissance Education's close analysis of civic, ecclesiastical, confraternal, and family records not only paints a vivid portrait of how schooling functioned in one city but also explores this small city's dynamic interconnections with other locales and with larger regional processes."--Jacket.
