

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910791691703321
Autore	Simon Yves Rene Marie <1903-1961.>
Titolo	The Ethiopian campaign and French political thought [[electronic resource] /] / Yves R. Simon ; translated by Robert Royal ; edited by Anthony O. Simon ; foreword by A. James McAdams
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Notre Dame, Ind., : University of Notre Dame Press, c2009
ISBN	0-268-09271-0
Descrizione fisica	xxiii, 131 p
Altri autori (Persone)	SimonAnthony O
Disciplina	963/.056
Soggetti	Italo-Ethiopian War, 1935-1936 - Foreign public opinion, French Italo-Ethiopian War, 1935-1936 - Moral and ethical aspects Intellectuals - Political activity - France - History - 20th century Public opinion - France - History - 20th century Italo-Ethiopian War, 1935-1936 - Diplomatic history Just war doctrine Preemptive attack (Military science) France Relations Italy Italy Relations France
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	From before the war to the Stresa Conference -- What do we care about Ethiopia? -- The anti-fascist crusade -- But is this war just? -- Ethiopia's foreign relations -- The mad dog -- Ethiopia's internal situation -- The covenant of the League of Nations -- British policy -- The intervention of the intellectuals -- Reflections on certain resistances to the progress of international law -- 7 March 1936 -- Appendix 1: Ethiopia revisited : the road to Vichy -- Appendix 2: Manifestos and documents -- Manifesto of French intellectuals for the defense of the West -- Response to the manifesto (for the defense of the West) of the Fascist intellectuals -- Concerning the Italo-Ethiopian conflict : manifesto for justice and peace -- An open letter signed by a group of French writers -- An open letter from Gabriel Marcel.

