

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910792023703321
Autore	Hung Hing Ming
Titolo	Li Shi Min, founding the Tang dynasty [[electronic resource] ] : the strategies that made China the greatest empire in Asia // Hing Ming Hung
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : Algora Pub., 2013
ISBN	0-87586-980-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (343 p.)
Disciplina	951.017092 951/.017092
Soggetti	Emperors - China China History Tang dynasty, 618-907 China History, Military 221 B.C.-960 A.D
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Sommario/riassunto	Li Shi Min, Emperor Taizong of the Tang Dynasty (AD 618-907), is regarded as the greatest emperor in Chinese history. He conquered the powerful Eastern Turkic Khanate and other khanates in the north and northwest, making China the greatest empire in Asia. Under his reign China entered into a period of peace and prosperity.