Sommario/riassunto	The fourth and final volume of this major collaborative national project details all separately published works of creative literature by Australian writers whose last names begin with P through Z, from European arrival in Australia to the end of the 20th century. Regardless of genre or perceived literary merit, each entry contains a comprehensive bibliography, with details of the first edition as well as significant new or revised editions and translations. Author biographies, awards, and other relevant information to both author and title are included.
