

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910793027403321
Titolo	Economy, crime and wrong in a neoliberal era // edited by James G. Carrier
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York : , : Berghahn Books, , 2018
ISBN	1-78920-045-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (276 pages)
Collana	EASA series ; ; 36
Disciplina	364
Soggetti	Neoliberalism Neoliberalism - Social aspects Collective behavior Right and wrong
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Economy, crime and wrong in a neoliberal era / James G. Carrier -- Marketing clientelism vs corruption : pharmaceutical off-label promotion on trial / Kalman Applbaum -- The measure of sociality : quantification, control and economic deviance / Emil A. Royrvik -- Under pressure : financial supervision in the post-2008 European Union / Daniel Seabra Lopes -- Of taxation, instability, fraud and calculation / Thomas Cantens -- Marketing marijuana : prohibition, medicalization and the commodity / Michael Polson -- Neoliberal citizenship and the politics of corruption : redefining informal exchange in Romanian healthcare / Sabina Stan -- Neoliberalism, violent crime and the moral economy of migrants / Kathy Powell -- How does neoliberalism relate to unauthorized migration? : the U.S.- Mexico case / Josiah McC. Heyman -- All that is normal melts into air : rethinking neoliberal rules and deviance / Steven Sampson.
Sommario/riassunto	"Corporate scandals since the 1990s have made it clear that economic wrong-doing is more common in Western societies than might be expected. This volume examines the relationship between such wrong-doing and the neoliberal orientations, policies, and practices that have been influential since around 1980, considering whether neoliberalism has affected the likelihood that people and firms will act in ways that many people would consider wrong. It furthermore asks whether ideas of economic right and wrong have become so fragmented and localized that collective judgement has become almost impossible"--
