

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910793970403321
Autore	Brown John <1715->
Titolo	An estimate of the manners and principles of the times and other writings // John Brown ; edited and with an introduction by David Womersley
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Carmel : , : Liberty Fund, , [2019] ©2019
ISBN	1-61487-929-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (657 pages)
Collana	The Thomas Hollis library
Altri autori (Persone)	BrownJohn <1715-1766.>
Disciplina	942.07/2
Soggetti	Ethics
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Sommario/riassunto	"John Brown took aim at England's higher ranks, calling out their lifestyle as "vain, luxurious, and selfish effeminacy" in a vigorous attack in his main work, An Estimate of the Manners and Principles of the Times (1757). This volume also includes four other works by Brown, as well as a tribute to Brown written by Thomas Hollis and Hollis' annotations in his personal copy of Estimate. The introduction, by David Womersley, places Brown's writings and career in the context of eighteenth-century moralism and his annotations will explain now-unfamiliar words and references to contemporary events, circumstances, and personalities"--