

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910795280603321
Autore	Hille Charlotte
Titolo	Clans and democratization : Chechnya, Albania, Afghanistan and Iraq / / by Charlotte Hille ; with Renee Gendron
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Leiden, The Netherlands ; ; Boston : , : Brill, , [2020] ©2020
ISBN	90-04-41548-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource
Collana	International comparative social studies ; ; Volume 43
Disciplina	320.54094965
Soggetti	Tribes - Albania
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Clans -- Statehood and the clan society -- Society and Democratisation -- Clans in Chechnya -- Clans in Albania -- Clans in Afghanistan -- Clans in Iraq.
Sommario/riassunto	Clan societies differ substantially from Western democratic states. Clan societies are based around the extended family. Honour and solidarity are important, which is reflected in nepotism and blood revenge. However, a more positive aspect of clan societies is the use of reconciliation to solve conflicts. This guarantees that parties to a conflict can cooperate in the future. When intervening in a clan based society it is important to be aware of the differences compared to Western democracy. Based on theory and practice the cases of Afghanistan, Iraq, Albania and Chechnya are investigated. This book explains clan society and provides tools to facilitate state building and democratization in clan based societies for those who intervene, aimed at conflict resolution and democratization.