Sommario/riassunto	"Today's teachers are some of the brightest and best educators in generations, and today's students are more technologically savvy and engaged in the world than ever before. So why are students so disinterested in the classroom? In their new book, Jackpot, Nicole Dimich, Cassandra Erkens, and Tom Schimmer dive into the structural complexities of engaging with student investment and what educators can do to reinvigorate their students. Utilizing case studies and a wide variety of features, Student Investment drives and encourages educators to get students passionate and enthusiastic about their own learning"--
