

|                         |   |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910797007603321   |
| Titolo                  | Asian Education and Development Studies . Volume 4, Number 1Effectiveness of anti-corruption agencies in five Asian countries //guest editors, Dr. Jon S. T. Quah and Professor Chilik Yu   |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | [Bradford, England] : , : Emerald, , 2015©2015  |
| ISBN                    | 1-78441-844-7   |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (160 p.)  |
| Collana                 | Asian Education and Development Studies, , 2046-3162 ; ; Volume 4,Number 1  |
| Disciplina              | 370.95  |
| Soggetti                | Education - Asia  |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese   |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia  |
| Note generali           | Description based upon print version of record.   |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references.  |
| Nota di contenuto       | Cover; Editorial boards; Guest editorial; Anti-corruption measures inChina: suggestions for reforms; Anti-corruption measures the Japaneseway: prevention matters; Treading the straight and righteous path:curbing corruption in the Philippines; Singapore's Corrupt PracticesInvestigation Bureau; Sibling rivalry among anti-corruption agencies inTaiwan; Political independence,operational impartiality,and theeffectiveness of anti-corruption agencies; Evaluating the effectivenessof anti-corruption agencies in five Asian countries  |
| Sommario/riassunto      | While most Asian countries have initiated various anti-corruptionmeasures during the past 60 years, their effectiveness in curbingcorruption has been mixed, with few success stories and many failures.Why is corruption still a serious problem in many Asian countries inspite of their anti-corruption efforts? How effective are the anti-corruption measures initiated in these countries? What are thestrengths and weaknesses of these anti-corruption measures? Cananything be done to enhance these measures? What accounts for thedifferent levels of effectiveness of the ACAs in Asian countries |