

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910797254603321
Autore	Gram John R.
Titolo	Education at the edge of empire : negotiating Pueblo identity in New Mexico's Indian boarding schools // John R. Gram : foreword by Thodore Jojola
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Scattle, Washington ; ; London, [England] : , : University of Washington Press, , 2015 ©2015
ISBN	0-295-80605-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (238 p.)
Collana	Indigenous Confluences
Disciplina	978.9004974
Soggetti	Pueblo Indians - Education - History Off-reservation boarding schools - New Mexico - History Pueblo Indians - Ethnic identity Pueblo Indians - Cultural assimilation Community and school - New Mexico - History Indians of North America - Education - New Mexico - History Indians of North America - New Mexico - Ethnic identity
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Eastern reforms encounter southwestern communities -- The economics of education: The true cost of keeping the doors open -- The consequences of competition: The fight to control the flow of Pueblo students -- Geographies of imagination: Competing understandings of people and place in the Southwest -- Everyday encounters: Daily life at the Albuquerque and Santa Fe Indian Schools -- The integration of worlds: what students and their communities made of the boarding school experience -- Conclusion: the successful legacy of assimilation's failure -- Appendix.