

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910797489503321
Autore	Sinema Kyrsten
Titolo	Who must die in Rwanda's genocide? : the state of exception realized / / Kyrsten Sinema
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Maryland : , : Lexington Books, , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	1-4985-1865-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (177 p.)
Disciplina	967.57104/2
Soggetti	Genocide - Rwanda - History - 20th century Hutu (African people) - Rwanda - Politics and government Tutsi (African people) - Crimes against - Rwanda Ethnic conflict - Rwanda - History - 20th century Rwanda History Civil War, 1994 Causes Rwanda History Civil War, 1994 Atrocities Rwanda Politics and government 1962-1994
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"This book analyzes the hundred year development of the 'state of exception' in Rwanda, a political theory developed and expanded by Foucault, Agamben, and others. It analyzes Hutu regime propaganda utilized to dehumanize the Tutsi population and how state action created a setting for genocide to become an appropriate reaction to political threats."--Publisher. Originally presented as the author's thesis (doctoral)--Arizona State University, 2012, under the title: Who must die : the state of exception in Rwanda's genocide.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Prelude to genocide -- Rwandan government and propaganda -- Pre-colonial Rwanda meets Belgian rule -- From Kayibanda to Habyiramaana -- Genocide -- Conclusion -- ; Appendix 1: English summary of the 1990 human rights violations -- ; Appendix 2: English summary of the 1993 Arusha Accords.
Sommario/riassunto	This book analyzes the hundred-year development of the "state of exception" in Rwanda, a political theory developed and expanded by Foucault, Agamben, and others. It analyzes Hutu regime propaganda utilized to dehumanize the Tutsi population and how state action created a setting for genocide to become an appropriate reaction to political threats.
