

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910797548403321
Autore	White Christopher
Titolo	Immigration and regional integration in a globalizing world : myths and truths about migration / / Christopher White
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, MD : , : Lexington Books, , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	0-7391-9910-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (217 p.)
Disciplina	304.8/2
Soggetti	Regionalism Emigration and immigration Emigration and immigration - Government policy Emigration and immigration - International cooperation Emigration and immigration - Political aspects Globalization
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Chapter One: Introduction; Chapter Two: International Migration and Regional Integration; Chapter Three: Theoretical Framework; Chapter Four: Europe; Chapter Five: North America; Chapter Six: The Rest of the World; Chapter Seven: Ending the Immigration Debate; Appendix: Methodology and Quantitative Analysis; Bibliography; Index; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	This book challenges prevailing assumptions of a strong connection between international migration and regional integration by arguing there is no substantial relationship between them and that they should not be conflated. Using this perspective, countries can consider the benefits of integration policies without worrying about migration policies.