

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910797548503321
Autore	Fehir Aaron <1981->
Titolo	Kierkegaardian reflections on the problem of pluralism // Aaron Fehir
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham : , : Lexington Books, , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	0-7391-8585-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (119 p.)
Disciplina	201/.5
Soggetti	Religious pluralism Religion - Philosophy Religions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Objections to pluralism -- The problem of conflicting-truth claims -- The problem of the criterion -- The problem of the incarnation -- Interreligious dialogues -- The problem of sin -- The Jewish problem -- The problem of Pantheism.
Sommario/riassunto	Kierkegaardian Reflections of the Problem of Pluralism draws on Kierkegaard's existentialist understanding of faith in order to defend religious pluralism, which says that different religions provide different paths to the same truth. In addition to addressing several specific objections to this position, Fehir also engages in interreligious dialogue by comparing and contrasting Kierkegaard's Christian perspective with the religious views of Buddhists, Jews, and Taoists.