

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910797611203321
Autore	Hasian Marouf Arif, Jr.
Titolo	Drone warfare and lawfare in a post-heroic age // Marouf Hasian Jr
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Tuscaloosa, Alabama : , : The University Alabama Press, , 2016 ©2016
ISBN	0-8173-8911-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (280 p.)
Collana	Rhetoric, Law, and the Humanities
Disciplina	343.73/0142
Soggetti	Drone aircraft - United States - Political aspects Drone aircraft - United States - Moral and ethical aspects Uninhabited combat aerial vehicles (International law) - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; 1. An Argumentation Approach to the Study of Drone Warfare and Lawfare; 2. The Genealogical Origins of Heroic Anxieties over Asymmetrical Warfare, Aerial Bombing, and the "Drone Syndrome"; 3. The George W. Bush Administration and America's Adoption of the Drones, 2001-2008; 4. Preserving One's Honor and One's Humanity: Mediascapes and Pakistani Countervisual Critiques of the Drone Wars; 5. Humanizing Drone Pilots, the Politics of Verticality, and the Public Legitimation of US Drone Policies 6. The Obama Administration's Immunization Rhetorics, the "Dispositional Matrix," and the Biopolitical Expansion of the Drone Wars 7. Futuristic Drone Fantasies, the Responsibility to Protect (R2P), and Drone Proliferation; Notes; Bibliography; Index