

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910797734103321
Titolo	Conversations on Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet Movement : dreaming for a better world / / edited by Peter Barnes and Gregory Baum
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Maryland : , : Lexington Books, , 2016 ©2016
ISBN	1-4985-2272-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (141 p.)
Disciplina	297.092
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Preface; Conversations on Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet Movement: Dreaming for a Better World; 1: The Gulen (Hizmet) Movement Education Model and Interfaith/Intercultural Dialogue; Chapter One: Ethics in Engineering and Science Education: Fethullah Gulen's Model; Chapter Two: Peace Begins with You and Me; 2: The Gulen (Hizmet) Movement Spirituality Comparisons; Chapter Three: Fethullah Gulen and Fr. Basil Moreau: Sowing the Seeds for Religious Tolerance and Dialogue; Chapter Four: The Color of God Chapter Five: Seeking the Lower Place: A Dialogue between Fethullah Gulen's Understanding of Sufism and Franciscan SpiritualityChapter Six: Weaving Spiritual Diversity to Enhance Personal and Community Growth; Chapter Seven: Fethullah Gulen: An Islamic Ethic for Contemporary Society; 3: The Dreams Shared by the Gulen (Hizmet) Movement; Chapter Eight: A Muslim and Christian Interfaith Imperative: Stewardship of Creation: Islam in the Contemporary World: The Fethullah Gulen Movement in Thought and Practice; Chapter Nine: Ottomanism and Fethullah Gulen: From Utopia to Reality Chapter Ten: The Way of Dialogue and the Gulen MovementChapter Eleven: Dreaming for a Better World: Foreword to the Conference of October 24, 2009; Bibliography; Index; Contributors
Sommario/riassunto	The world needs vision to anticipate its potential for positive change, and that is what this book represents. While many equate faith positions with conflict, this book presents a more positive position-based in the philosophy of Fethullah Gulen-that emphasizes the potential for collaboration of faiths while acknowledging their diversity.
