Sommario/riassunto	The Interpretation of Sun Tzu's Art of War revises and reorganizes the original text of Sun Tzu's Art of War and translates it into vernacular Chinese with annotations of important military terms in ancient China attached. It extracts the essence of each chapter and explains Sun Tzu's theory with specific and vivid examples of battles. This book consists of about 110,000 words and encloses over 130 illustrations. It combines academic quality with popularity and ideological nature with readability.
