Sommario/riassunto

The volume edited by Bartomiej Krzan offers different perspectives on the prosecution of international crimes. The analyses contained therein reflect different backgrounds, mainly legal, combining several disciplines, and making it a multidisciplinary study. The main (but definitely not the exclusive) point of reference is that of international law. In addition, other perspectives, those of legal history or sociology of law and obviously the one of criminal law (both substantive and procedural) provide useful alternatives or in most occasions complementary approaches to the examination of the prosecution of international crimes. The book combines different views, backgrounds and underlying assumptions. But gathered together they, it is to be hoped, shed some additional, useful light that might be helpful for identifying new dimensions of the reaction (judicial or other) towards international crimes. Contributors: Wadysaw Czapliski, Patrycja Grzebyk, Witold Jakimko, Wojciech Jasiski, David Kohout, Karolina Kremens, Bartomiej Krzan, Krzysztof Maso, Neringa Mickeviit, Robert Uerpmann-Witzack, Regina Valutyté, Karolina Wierczyska, Joachim Wolf, Loammi Wolf, and Justinas Žilinskas.
