

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910806256903321
Autore	Powell Richard <1959->
Titolo	Child law : a guide for courts and practitioners // Richard Powell
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Winchester, : Waterside Press, 2001
ISBN	1-281-12475-3 9786611124755 1-906534-47-0
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (192 pages)
Disciplina	346.420135
Soggetti	Children - Legal status, laws, etc - Great Britain Juvenile delinquency - Great Britain
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	""Cover ""; ""CONTENTS""; ""Preface""; ""Table 1.1 Age-based rights""; ""1 Who are 'Children?'""; ""2 Children and their Parents""; ""3 Child Rights in International Law""; ""3 Child Rights in International Law""; ""4 Working for the Protection of Children""; ""5 The Protection of Children as Victims""; ""6 Safeguards for Children as Offenders""; ""7 Emergency Protection of Children: Public Law Safeguards""; ""8 Emergency Protection of Children: Private Law Safeguards""; ""9 If Adult Relationships Break Down""; ""10 Financial Matters""; ""11 Education and Employment""; ""Index""
Sommario/riassunto	Child Law covers criminal, family and civil aspects of the Law affecting children - and ranges from offending to care proceedings to parental conflict to human rights (and international treaties) to education, work and employment - making it of considerable interest to a wide range of people who wish to understand the 'bigger picture' against which child protection, youth justice and other child-related public and community responsibilities occur and intersect.