

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910806848003321
Autore	Classen Albrecht
Titolo	Early history of the Southwest through the eyes of German-speaking Jesuit missionaries : a transcultural experience in the eighteenth century // Albrecht Classen
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, : Lexington Books, 2013
ISBN	1-283-89174-3 0-7391-7785-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (230 p.)
Disciplina	266.02343072
Soggetti	Missionaries - Southwest, New - History - 18th century Indians of North America - Southwest, New - History - 18th century Missionaries - Southwest, New Southwest, New History To 1848 Sources Southwest, New Foreign public opinion, German History 18th century Sources Southwest, New Foreign public opinion, Swiss History 18th century Sources Southwest, New Ethnic relations History 18th century Sources
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	CONTENTS; List of Illustrations; Foreword; Acknowledgments; 1 German-Speaking Jesuit Missionaries in the American Southwest: Global Perspectives of a Local Phenomenon in the Eighteenth Century-An Introduction; 2 Major German Jesuit Writers and Their Biographies: A Global History from Individual Perspectives; 3 Father Eusebio Kino-The Pioneer: Discovery, Encounters, and the Establishment of the Kino Missionary Network; 4 Joseph Stoecklein's Welt-Bott: A Jesuit's Collection of Global Missionary Reports for a German Audience 5 An Encyclopedic Approach to the Early History of Sonora: The Pimeria Alta as Seen by Ignaz Pfefferkorn, a German Scientist Missionary and Anthropologist in the New World 6 Joseph Och's Travel Reports: An Autobiographical Perspective; 7 The Personal Perspective: Letters by the Swiss Jesuit Philipp Segesser, a Missionary's Correspondence with His

Sommario/riassunto

This book provides unique and lively, authentic, and source-based insights into the history, culture, geograpyh, fauna, flora, geology, climate, and politics of eighteenth-century Sonora/Arizona, drawing from the fascinating first-hand accounts written by German speaking Jesuit missionaries. Transcultural experiences of extraordinary kinds dominate those accounts which allow us to understand the difficult, problematic, sometimes hostile, but then also productive and fruitful contacts, interactions, and dealings between the European missionaries and the native population.</sp
