

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910807695103321
Autore	Wodzinski Marcin
Titolo	Haskalah and Hasidism in the Kingdom of Poland : a history of conflict // Marcin Wodzinski ; translated by Sarah Cozens ; assistant translator Agnieszka Mirowska [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Oxford : , : The Littman Library of Jewish Civilization, , 2020
ISBN	1-80034-102-4 1-909821-89-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (351 pages)
Collana	Liverpool scholarship online
Disciplina	296.833209033
Soggetti	Hasidism - Poland - History - 19th century Haskalah - Poland Hasidism - Controversial literature - History and criticism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Previously issued in print: 2005. Translated from the Polish.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Sommario/riassunto	The conflict between Haskalah and hasidism was one of the most important forces in shaping the world of Polish Jewry for almost two centuries, but our understanding of it has long been dominated by theories based on stereotypes rather than detailed analysis. This text challenges the long-established theories about the conflict by contextualizing it, principally in the Kingdom of Poland but also with regard to other parts of eastern Europe. It follows the development of this conflict in its central arena and reconstructs the way the conflict expressed itself. The volume shows that it was primarily informed by non-ideological clashes at the level of local communities.