

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910808504003321
Titolo	A companion to intellectual history // edited by Richard Whatmore and Brian Young
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chichester, West Sussex : , : Wiley Blackwell, , 2016
ISBN	1-78684-427-3 1-118-50808-4 1-118-50807-6 1-118-50809-2 1-118-50815-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (557 p.)
Collana	Wiley Blackwell companions to world history
Soggetti	Philosophy Philosophy - Historiography Intellectual life
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	Title Page; Table of Contents; Notes on Contributors; Introduction; Part One: Approaches to Intellectual History; Chapter One: The Identity of Intellectual History; Introduction; The practice of intellectual history; 'Read like a critic'; Intellectual history and the history of disciplines; Conclusion; References; Chapter Two: Intellectual History and Historicism in Post-War England; Introduction: The history of political thought and the history of historiography; Friedrich Meinecke and Historicism; Historicism : from historical method to history of historiography Conclusion: Historicism and emigre scholarshipReferences; Further reading; Chapter Three: Intellectual History in the Modern University; Introduction; The Sussex anomaly; John Burrow as an intellectual historian; Burrow and the working intellectual historian; Conclusion; References; Further reading; Chapter Four: Intellectual History and Poststructuralism; Introduction; What is poststructuralism?; Jacques Derrida; Deconstruction and social history; New anxieties; Reaffirming history; References; Chapter Five: Intellectual History as

Begriffsgeschichte; Introduction

Koselleck and the origins of GG; The content of GG; Conclusion;
References; Chapter Six: Intellectual History and History of the Book; Introduction; Philology and the history of ideas; Roger Chartier and linguistic history; Grafton, Jardine, Waszink and Lipsius; References; Further reading; Chapter Seven: Michel Foucault and the Genealogy of Power and Knowledge; Introduction; Beginnings: From Nietzsche to the birth of archaeology; The archaeology of the human sciences; From archaeology to genealogy; References; Chapter Eight: Quentin Skinner and the Relevance of Intellectual History

Introduction; Defining linguistic contextualism; Giving substance to the method; Intellectual history and present politics; References; Chapter Nine: J. G. A. Pocock as an Intellectual Historian; Language and discourse; The rise and fall of paradigms; The nature of history; Situating Pocock; References; Part Two: The Discipline of Intellectual History; Chapter Ten: Intellectual History and the History of Philosophy; Introduction; The history of philosophy; Offshoots from history of philosophy: history of science and history of ideas; Intellectual history Intellectual history and the history of philosophy: Philosophy in History (1984) The context of the 'Introduction' in the Philosophy in History (1984); The current relationship between intellectual history and history of philosophy; References; Chapter Eleven: Intellectual History and the History of Political Thought; The history of political thought and present politics; Unspoken assumptions; Conditions of possibility; The global turn; References; Chapter Twelve: Intellectual History and the History of Science; The new historical consciousness; Science and history in the nineteenth century

The history of science as an academic discipline

---