

|                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910809378003321  |
| Autore                  | Cohen Naomi W (Naomi Wiener), <1927-2018.>   |
| Titolo                  | What the rabbis said [[electronic resource] ] : the public discourse of nineteenth-century American rabbis / / Naomi W. Cohen  |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | New York, : New York University Press, c2008   |
| ISBN                    | 0-8147-7294-30-8147-1703-9   |
| Edizione                | [1st ed.]  |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (272 p.)   |
| Disciplina              | 296.6/10973  |
| Soggetti                | Rabbis - Office - United States - History - 19th centuryJewish sermons, American - History and criticismJudaism - United States - History - 19th centuryJews - United States - Social conditions - 19th centuryJews - United States - Identity   |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese  |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa   |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia   |
| Note generali           | Description based upon print version of record.  |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references (p. 217-245) and index.  |
| Nota di contenuto       | The muzzled rabbi -- From the words of Sabato Morais -- Heroes and villains -- Meant for children -- Rabbi versus rabbi -- Restoration to Palestine -- Rabbis under attack -- The new antisemitism -- The world's parliament of religions -- Building a profession.  |
| Sommario/riassunto      | What the Rabbis Said examines a relatively unexplored facet of the rich social history of nineteenth-century American Jews. Based on sources that have heretofore been largely neglected, it traces the sermons and other public statements of rabbis, both Traditionalists and Reformers, on a host of matters that engaged the Jewish community before 1900. Reminding the reader of the complexities and diversity that characterized the religious congregations in nineteenth-century America, Cohen offers insight into the primary concerns of both the religious leaders and the laity-full acculturation to Ame |