

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910809511503321
Autore	Brennan Jason <1979->
Titolo	Good work if you can get it : how to succeed in academia / / Jason Brennan
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Baltimore, Mary-land : , : Johns Hopkins University Press, , [2020] ©2020
ISBN	1-4214-3797-X
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource
Disciplina	331.1231378120973
Soggetti	College teachers - Supply and demand - United States College teachers - Vocational guidance - United States College teaching - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Unpleasant truths about the world's best job -- Do you really want an academic job? -- Success in graduate school means working to get a job -- How to be productive and happy -- The academic market, tenure, and market outside Academia -- Exit options.
Sommario/riassunto	"This is a short, punchy book about the real professional life of an academic. It provides hard data on what academic jobs are like and who gets them; on how to succeed in graduate school; on how to find time to write, teach, and have a personal life; and on what a person might do if academia does not work out. Written by a successful professor, the book warns aspiring academics about the harsh realities of an oversupplied job market and prepares them for playing by the rules that govern success in the academic profession"--