

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910810022003321
Titolo	East Europe // edited by Adam Bingham
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bristol, U.K., : Intellect, 2011
ISBN	1-283-60997-5 9786613922427 1-84150-518-8
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (266 p.)
Collana	Directory of world cinema, , 2040-7971 ; ; v. 8
Altri autori (Persone)	BinghamAdam
Disciplina	791.430947
Soggetti	Motion pictures - Europe, Eastern
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Front Cover; Title; Copyright; Contents; Acknowledgements; Introduction by the Editor; Film of the Year; Tricks; Actors; Zbigniew Cybulski; Comedy; Essay; Reviews; War; Essay; Reviews; Art Cinema; Essay; Reviews; History; Essay; Reviews; Drama & Realism; Essay; Reviews; Surrealism & Allegory; Essay; Reviews; Poland; Directors; Reviews; Yugoslavia; Directors; Reviews; Hungary; Directors; Reviews; Czechoslovakia; Directors; Reviews; Recommended Reading; Test Your Knowledge; Notes on Contributors; Filmography; BackCover
Sommario/riassunto	Part of the ""Directory of World Cinema"" series, this title includes contributions from some of the leading academics in the field. It features film recommendations from a range of genres for those interested in watching more cinema from these regions. It also features comprehensive filmography as an index. Given the prevalence of important new wave cinemas across Eastern Central Europe in the post-war, post-Stalinist era (Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Yugoslavia), this new volume of the ""Directory of World Cinema"" series charts the trends of these national cinemas. In the decades si