Sommario/riassunto	. Written with the express purpose of filling the gap that exists between educators' desire to address injustice and the attitudes and skill sets required to be effective in this arena. . It of helping educators to become effective allies in the struggle for educational equity and social justice. . Takes an assets-based approach by underscoring the assumption that educators are predisposed to becoming powerful allies for social justice by virtue of their dispositions, professional preparation, and role-associated standing . Includes a variety of powerful vignettes that illustrates how school environments address the myriad forms of injustice experienced by those on the margins . Includes thought provoking activities suitable for use in multiple professional learning settings.
