

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910810367603321
Autore	Crumbley Deidre Helen <1947->
Titolo	Saved and sanctified : the rise of a storefront church in Great Migration Philadelphia // Deidre Helen Crumbley
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Gainesville, : University Press of Florida, c2012
ISBN	0-8130-4379-4 0-8130-4355-7
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (225 p.)
Collana	The history of African American religions
Disciplina	289.95
Soggetti	African Americans - Pennsylvania - Philadelphia - Religion Philadelphia (Pa.) Church history
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Call -- City tales -- Saints tales -- Becoming saints -- Family -- Response.
Sommario/riassunto	During the early twentieth century, millions of southern blacks moved north to escape the violent racism of the Jim Crow South and to find employment in urban centers. They transplanted not only themselves but also their culture; in the midst of this tumultuous demographic transition emerged a new social institution, the storefront sanctified church. Saved and Sanctified focuses on one such Philadelphia church that was started above a horse stable, was founded by a woman born sixteen years after the Emancipation Proclamation, and is still active today. ""The Church,"" as it is