

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910810408803321
Titolo	Sport and the law : historical and cultural intersections / / edited by Samuel O. Regalado, Sarah K. Fields
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Fayetteville, Arkansas : , : University of Arkansas Press, , 2014
ISBN	1-61075-549-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (233 p.)
Collana	Sport, culture & society
Disciplina	344.73099 344/.73099
Soggetti	Sports - Law and legislation - United States United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Series Editor's Preface; Acknowledgments; Chapter One: Introduction; Section I: The Burger Supreme Court and Sport; Chapter Two: Clay, aka Ali v. U.S. (1971); Chapter Three: Odd Bedfellows; Chapter Four: The Flood Case, 1972; Chapter Five: How the Burger Court Came to Be; Section II: Antitrust Law and Sport; Chapter Six: Danny Gardella and Baseball's Reserve Clause; Chapter Seven: Powerlifting's Watershed; Section III: The Impact of Sport on Law and Law on Sport; Chapter Eight: Thirty-Five Years after Richards v. USTA; Chapter Nine: "Clean Up the Abuses" Chapter Ten: "A Matter of Basic Fairness" Chapter Eleven: Epilogue; Thoughts Regarding Scholarly Methods; Notes; Contributors; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Samuel O. Regalado is professor of history at California State University, Stanislaus and the author or editor of four books, including Baseball in Nikkei America: From the Meiji to the Majors. Sarah K. Fields is associate professor of communication at University of Colorado Denver and the author of Female Gladiators: Gender, Law, and Contact Sport in America.