

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910810641103321
Autore	Hierocles
Titolo	Philogelos // edidit R.D. Dawe
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Monachii [i.e. Munich], : K.G. Saur, 2000
ISBN	3-11-094768-4
Edizione	[Reprint 2011]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (132 p.)
Collana	Bibliotheca scriptorum Graecorum et Romanorum Teubneriana
Classificazione	FH 70751
Altri autori (Persone)	DaweR. D (Roger David) Hierocles, Grammarian
Disciplina	880 882.01
Soggetti	Greek wit and humor
Lingua di pubblicazione	Greco antico
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	A collection of facetiae sometimes attributed, through misidentification of the otherwise unknown Hierocles named in MSS. as author, to the 5th cent. neo-Platonist Hierocles of Alexandria. However, according to Dawe (p.v), the work is derived from multiple sources. Includes index.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	Front matter -- . -- APPENDIX DE CODICIBVS PAR. SVP. GR. 491 (z) et 690 (A) INTER SE CONNEXIS -- INDEX VERBORVM -- Back matter
Sommario/riassunto	Philogelos (lover of laughter) is a collection of over 260 jokes of imperial and Byzantine vintage. The humor can seem at times surprisingly modern; at other times it seems so feeble as scarcely to deserve the name. In general it is aimed at the stupidity of persons who are variously called ""scholastics"" or citizens of, e.g., Cyme or Abdera. Many of the anecdotes are transmitted in two different ...