Sommario/riassunto

<P>This volume brings together Coward's celebrated verse, from snappy epigrams to seven-hundred-line short stories such as <I>"P&O 1930"</I> and "<I>Not</I> <I>Yet the Dodo</I>"; from moving war-time encounters to satirical barbs at familiar Coward targets; and from personal reminiscences to occasional verse such as his tribute to Ivor Novello or his counter-attack on Graham Greene.</P>
<P>Includes an introduction by Martin Tickner and Coward's long-time companion, Graham Payn.</P>
