Sommario/riassunto	To Henri Lefebvre, the space and 'lived everydayness' of the interdependent, multi-faceted city produces manifold possibilities of identification and realisation through often imperceptible interactions and practices. 'Art and the City' takes this observation as its cue to examine the role of art against a backdrop of globally rising urban populations, taking into account the more recent performative and relational 'turns' of art that have sought in their city settings to identify a participating spectator - an implicated citizen. In exploring how artworks present themselves as a means by which
