

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910811289003321
Titolo	No growth without equity? : : inequality, interests, and competition in Mexico // Santiago Levy and Michael Walton, editors
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, DC : , : World Bank Basingstoke ; ; New York : , : Palgrave Macmillan, , [2009] copyright 2009
ISBN	0-8213-7769-8 1-282-01256-8 9786612012563 0-8213-7768-X
Descrizione fisica	xxi, 449 pages : illustrations ; ; 24 cm
Collana	Equity and Development Series
Altri autori (Persone)	LevySantiago WaltonMichael
Disciplina	330.972
Soggetti	Income distribution - Mexico Economic development - Mexico
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"This book is based on papers originally presented at a conference held in Mexico City on November 27-28, 2006".
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Contributors; Acknowledgments; Abbreviations; Equity, Competition, and Growth in Mexico: An Overview; Figures; Tables; Part I: Concepts and International Experience; Part II: Interactions between Equity, Institutions, and Growth in Mexico; Part III: Equity and Core Institutions in Mexico: Social Security, the Labor Market, and Banking; Part IV: How Unequal Structures Hurt Competition in Major Sectors; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Equity and growth are central concerns for development. They are often treated as separate questions, both in economic and social analysis and development policy. This separation is neither good theory nor good practice. This book examines the relationship between equity and growth in Mexico. The central thesis is that Mexico's poor growth performance of the last twenty five years is intimately linked to inequity. Specific inequalities in power, wealth, and status have created and sustained economic institutions and policies that both tend to perpetuate these inequalities and are sources of ine
