

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910811963703321
Autore	De Nys Martin J. <1945->
Titolo	Considering transcendence : elements of a philosophical theology // Martin J. De Nys
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bloomington, : Indiana University Press, c2009
ISBN	0-253-00263-X 1-282-10352-0 9786612103520
Descrizione fisica	x, 176 p
Collana	Indiana series in the philosophy of religion
Disciplina	210
Soggetti	Religion - Philosophy Transcendence (Philosophy) Philosophical theology Phenomenology Religious life
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [167]-171) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Sacred transcendence -- Religious discourse -- Radical self-transcendence -- The truth about religion -- Religious truth -- Pluralism and religious truth -- Aspects of the conception of god -- The theory of religion and religious inquiry.
Sommario/riassunto	What does it mean to have a distinctively religious orientation toward reality? Martin J. De Nys offers a philosophy of religion grounded within the phenomenological tradition as a way to understand religious life. Focusing on the key concepts of sacred transcendence, religious discourse, and radical self-transcendence, De Nys contends that a phenomenological view of religion allows considerable diversity in regard to the possibility of religious truth. Phenomenology also helps to account for the dizzying variety of religious expressions and religious lifeways. Ultimately, De Nys reaches a universal and complete method of describing a philosophical approach to religious life. This compelling book plays a valuable role in describing human engagement with religion.

