

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910812264203321
Autore	Farmer Paul <1959-2022.>
Titolo	To repair the world [[electronic resource]] : Paul Farmer speaks to the next generation // edited by Jonathan Weigel ; with a foreword by President Bill Clinton
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Berkeley, : University of California Press, 2013
ISBN	0-520-95543-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (313 p.)
Collana	California Series in Public Anthropology ; ; 29
Classificazione	SOC002010
Altri autori (Persone)	WeigelJonathan <1986->
Disciplina	362.1
Soggetti	Public health - Social aspects Public welfare Public health administration Public health - Citizen participation Public health
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	pt. I. Reimagining equity -- pt. II. The future of medicine and the big picture -- pt. III. Health, human rights, and unnatural disasters -- pt. IV. Service, solidarity, social justice.
Sommario/riassunto	"Here are highlights from Paul Farmers' speeches to a variety of audiences, from Princeton to Harvard to Notre Dame to Berkeley. Paul is a rock star of the academy who has a large following among many groups: students, doctors, general readers, activists, public health folks, professors. He is the pied piper of everyone who wants to change the world. Not only is he cofounder of Partners In Health,US Deputy Special Envoy to Haiti,head of social medicine at Harvard, but he's also a charming, humorous, engaging public speaker whose charisma is legend. In this book, conceived of as a graduation gift for students write large, Farmer addresses the challenges facing young people with a call for them to change the world and become activists"--