

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910812525203321
Titolo	Anthropology of Los Angeles : place and agency in an urban setting // edited by Jenny Banh with Melissa King
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Maryland : , : Lexington Books, , 2017 ©2017
ISBN	1-4985-2855-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (261 pages)
Disciplina	306.0979494
Soggetti	Los Angeles (Calif.) Social conditions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction / Melissa King with Jenny Banh -- Hauntings of a different kind : militarized spaces and memories of containment / Jocelyn A. Pacleb -- Bicycle anthropology of Los Angeles / Adonia E. Lugo, Allison Mattheis, with Maryann Aguirre -- The people in Los Angeles public spaces are not dead : micro-sociability in the squares, plazas, and parks of the post-modern global city / Nathalie Boucher -- Embodying democratic spaces : community organizer alternative narratives that challenge the mainstream negative stigma of South Los Angeles / George Villanueva -- Analysis of Latino-Korean relations in the workplace : Latino perspectives in the aftermath of the 1992 Los Angeles civil unrest / Kyeyoung Park -- Memory : the Angeleno Pharmakon / Charles Joseph -- Multiple ways of knowing : layers of history on the Great Wall of Los Angeles / Andrea Lepage -- Making space : ethnic towns and the racing of public space in Los Angeles / Beth F. Baker and ChorSwang Ngim -- Agro-ethnic landscapes of Los Angeles / Natale A. Zappia -- A conversation with Diego Vigil, a Los Angeles pioneer anthropologist : an anthropologist past, present, and future / Jenny Banh -- Conclusion / Jenny Banh.
Sommario/riassunto	"The Anthropology of Los Angeles : Place and Agency in an Urban Setting questions the production and representations of both the real and imagined L.A. by documenting hidden histories that portray a collision of race, class, gender, identity, food, and space"--Provided by publisher.

