

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910813445203321
Titolo	50 years of Malaysia : federalism revisited // edited by Andrew J. Harding & James Chin ; contributors, Professor James Chin [and eight others]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Singapore : , : Marshall Cavendish Editions, , 2014 ©2014
ISBN	981-4561-96-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (301 p.)
Disciplina	320.959
Soggetti	Central-local government relations - Malaysia Central-local government relations - Malaysia - Malaya Federal government - Malaysia Federal government - Malaysia - Malaya Malaysia Politics and government Malaya Politics and government
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di contenuto	COVER; CONTENTS; ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS; FIFTY YEARS OF MALAYSIA~ reflections and unanswered questions ~; An interview with TAN SRI SIMON SIPAUN; An interview with DATO DR PETER MOONEY; FEDERATING FOR SURVIVAL; FEDERAL-EAST MALAYSIA RELATIONS; PROTECTION OF THE INDIGENOUS PEOPLES OF SABAH AND SARAWAK UNDER MALAYSIA'S FEDERAL SYSTEM; CONFUSION, COERCION AND COMPROMISE IN MALAYSIAN FEDERALISM; FIFTY YEARS OF WATER RESOURCES MANAGEMENT IN MALAYSIAN FEDERALISM; INDEX; CONTRIBUTORS
Sommario/riassunto	On 16 September 1963 Malaysia came into being with the accession of Sabah, Sarawak and Singapore to the existing Federation of Malaya. This book marks the 50th anniversary of this notable event in South East Asia's history. The focus of the book will be mainly on the experience of Sabah and Sarawak as subjects of the federation. It looks at the experience of federalism from a number of different perspectives, keeping in mind not just the effects of federalism on

Sabah and Sarawak but also the effects on the federation as a whole.
Has the bargain of 1963 been adhered to? Has Malaysian federalis

---