

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910813482903321
Titolo	Enemies within : Italian and other internees in Canada and abroad // edited by Franca Iacovetta, Roberto Perin, and Angelo Principe
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Toronto, [Ontario] ; ; Buffalo, [New York] ; ; London, [England] : , : University of Toronto Press, , 2000 ©2000
ISBN	1-282-03708-0 9786612037085 1-4426-7446-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (438 p.)
Collana	Heritage
Disciplina	940.5472710971316
Soggetti	World War, 1939-1945 - Prisoners and prisons, Canadian Prisoners of war - Canada Prisoners of war - Italy Italians - Canada - History Internment camps - Canada Livres numeriques. History e-books. Electronic books. Italy Canada
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Comparative perspectives on public policy, historical memory, and daily life / Franca Iacovetta and Roberto Perin -- A tangled knot: prelude to 10 June 1940 / Angelo Principe -- Exporting fascism to Canada: Toronto's little Italy / Luigi G. Pennacchio -- The internment of Italian Canadians / Luigi Bruti Liberati -- 'Uneasy neighbours': internment and Hamilton's Italians / Enrico Carlson Cumbo -- A war on ethnicity? The RCMP and internment / Reg Whitaker and Gregory S. Kealey -- The curious case of female internees / Michelle McBride -- The 'camp boys':

interned refugees from nazism / Paula J. Draper -- Political prisoners: the communist internees / Ian Radforth -- The internment of Italians in Australia / R.J.B. Bosworth -- The internment of Italians in Britain / Lucio Sponza -- When Italian Americans were 'enemy aliens' / Rose D. Scherini -- Actor or victim? Mario Duliani and his internment narrative / Roberto Perin -- Images of internment / Gabriele Scardellato -- The politics of redress: the contemporary Ukrainian-Canadian campaign / Frances Swyripa -- Redress, collective memory, and the politics of history / Franca Iacovetta and Robert Ventresca.

Sommario/riassunto

In the recent campaign led by the National Congress of Italian Canadians to gain redress for compatriots interned during the Second World War, leaders claimed that the Canadian state had waged a 'war against ethnicity.' Their version of history, argue the editors, drew on selective evidence and glossed over the fascist past of some Italian Canadians. The editors have assembled scholars who, while having diverse views, seek to stimulate informed debate. Enemies Within is the first study of its kind to examine not only the formulation and uneven implementation of internment policy, but the social and gender history of internment. It brings together national and international perspectives. The book offers differing interpretations of Italian internment in Canada, the United Kingdom, the United States, and Australia. It invites comparisons between Italian Canadians and Canada's other internees, including Communists, German Canadians, Ukrainian Canadians and Jewish refugees. Contemporary redress campaigns are examined. Masculinity, female internees, Communist women's release politics, and memory culture are some of the little-studied subjects that also receive attention. This book contains photographs never before seen. A general introduction and four section introductions provide valuable background to the issues being discussed.
