

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910813716803321
Titolo	Framing American politics / / edited by Karen Callaghan and Frauke Schnell ; with a foreword by Robert M. Entman
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania : , : University of Pittsburgh Press, , [2005] ©2005
ISBN	0-8229-7272-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (265 p.)
Disciplina	320.973/01/4
Soggetti	Communication in politics - United States Press and politics - United States Mass media - Political aspects - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (pages 215-237) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction : Framing political issues in American politics / Karen Callaghan and Frauke Schnell -- News from somewhere : journalistic frames and the debate over "public journalism" / Michael X. Delli Carpini -- Campaign frames : can candidates influence media coverage? / Kim L. Fridkin and Patrick J. Kenney -- Obstacles and opportunities : factors that constrain elected officials' ability to frame political issues / Teena Gabrielson -- Democratic debate and real opinions / Donald R. Kinder and Thomas E. Nelson -- Terrorism, media frames, and framing effects : a macro- and microlevel analysis / Frauke Schnell and Karen Callaghan -- Super-predators or victims of societal neglect? : framing effects in juvenile crime coverage / Frank D. Gilliam Jr. and Shanto Iyengar -- Media frames, core values, and the dynamics of racial policy preferences / Paul M. Kellstedt -- Conclusion : Controversies and new directions in framing research / Karen Callaghan.