

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910814191603321
Autore	Bruce David (David S.)
Titolo	The life of Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton : extraordinary perseverance // David Bruce
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham : , : Lexington Books, , [2014] ©2014
ISBN	0-7391-8338-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (251 p.)
Disciplina	326/.8092 B
Soggetti	Social reformers - Great Britain Abolitionists - Great Britain
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	"Principles early planted" -- Spitalfields -- "An inner light" -- Buxton and penal reform -- Buxton in Parliament, 1819-1822 -- Taking command, 1822-1829 -- Abolition and its aftermath, 1830-1838 -- "A holy cause:" the Niger expedition of 1841 -- Buxton in winter.
Sommario/riassunto	The Life of Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton is a biography of one of Great Britain's most prominent social activists and examines his quest to improve humanity during the first half of the nineteenth century. Using Buxton's Memoirs and personal papers, as well as the writings of his friends and contemporaries, David Bruce paints a full portrait of an idealistic businessman driven by religious conviction and national pride who tried to influence the destiny of his country.<s